THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 15, 1880.

AN APRIL DAY.

When the warm sun, that brings Seed-time and harvest, has returned again, 'Tis sweet to visit the still wood, whence

The first flowers of the plain I love the season well

When forest glades are teeming with bright forms Nor dark and many-folded clouds foretell

The coming on of storms. From the earth's loosened mould

The sapling draws its sustenance and thrives Though stricken to the heart with winter's The tree revives.

The softly warbled song Comes from the pleasant woods, and colore wings

Glance quick in the bright sun that move along

The forest openings. When the bright sunset fills

The silver woods with light, the green slope throws Its shadows in the hollows of the hills, And wide the upland glows.

And when the eve is born, In the blue lake, the sky o'er reaching far Is hollowed out, and the moon dips her horn And twinkles many a star.

Inverted in the tide Stand the gray rocks, and trembling shr dow And the fair trees look over side by side

And see themselves below. Sweet April! many a thought Is wedded unto thee, as hearts are wed; Nor shall they fail, till, to its autumn brought

Life's golden fruit is shed
